Re: Commodity Futures Trading Commission v. Patrick K. McDonnell and CabbageTech, Corp. d/b/a Coin Drop Markets, No. 18-CV-00361 (JBW)(RLM)

Dear Chief Magistrate Judge Mann:

I am a Defendant in the above referenced matter writing you concerning the 'initial' and/or 'revised' Court ordered 'Slack' authorization release form presented to me by Plaintiffs'. I have addressed my concerns with the Court and Plaintiff twice in regards to me believing I have never signed up to this service. I cannot blindly ignore this issue and sign a legal document stating, "Patrick K. McDonnell is a subscriber of the electronic communications service or remote computing service Slack Technologies." if believed by myself not to be true. I understand it is Court ordered and that if I outright refuse to sign can be held in contempt of your Court which is why I write you. Your Honor, I respectfully ask the Court to allow Defendant the right to sign this authorization release form under Duress and/or Protest.

I am representing myself and feel signing/submitting any legal document knowingly believed to contain a falsehood is illegal under perjury laws. I also gracefully ask the Court reconsider said Slack request authorization order and move the Plaintiff's to acquire account via subpoena like all other social media accounts claimed to be Defendants by Plaintiff's yet are in no way believed to be associated.

I apologize to the Court for this issue and believe this to be my last letter in reference to this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

Patrick K. McDonnell
